Ahava Enterprises, Incorporated, 2010

Gizmo's curiosity gets the better of him and he winds up in the middle of an invasion of the caterflies, spies for the Copycats. When confronted by the town bully Sourpuss, Gizmo comes face to face with his personal fears and his personal commitment to living a courageous life. Gizmo learns first-hand about the Power of Courage. He discovers the importance of freedom of speech and the right to peaceful assembly. Gizmo's story teaches the importance of protecting our 1st Amendment rights. This is the perfect picture book for concerned, conservative parents to read over and over again to their children and grandchildren - to instill the core values of the Constitution and offset the political influences of progressive policies that seek to infringe on the freedoms granted by the Bill of Rights.
